Our Work

FREEDOM:
Bringing release from addiction

Martha’s Place is a Maryland state-certified program, offering both six-month and long-term structured recovery housing to women struggling with addiction and homelessness. Addiction counseling, life skills training, money management and a supportive residential environment combine to form a powerful and life-changing experience for our residents.

BEAUTY:
Transforming our physical neighborhood and our environment

We believe that beauty and a safe environment are essential human needs. By converting 18 vacant lots into green spaces, meditative gardens and a dozen community murals, we’ve conveyed peace in our neighborhood through beauty and respect for our surroundings. In reclaiming six previously vacant and decaying buildings for our programs, we’ve brought them back to life and revived a major intersection of our community along historic Pennsylvania Avenue.

CREATIVITY:
Facilitating the Arts

Jubilee Arts brings social change through creative instruction and artistic programming for ages six to seniors. By teaching visual art, ceramics, dance and culture we’ve seen the transformative power of creativity in our community while also beautifying the neighborhood. Opening our doors to important artists and their work and developing key partnerships with MICA and Baltimore Clayworks - we’ve brought inspiration and new vision to residents in our city.
With your help we begin a new four year campaign. By the year 2020 we will:

Champion FREEDOM:
Offer addiction care and treatment to another 150 women
Engage over 100 teens in our Youth In Business class to become entrepreneurs

Cultivate BEAUTY:
Create 10 new community murals
Employ 200 community members and Baltimore artists in our community development

Foster CREATIVITY:
Provide art classes and community art projects to 10,000 youth and adults
Offer opportunity for artistic expression, income, and a path to career opportunities in the arts
